Description

Provide a short description of the event and its activities.

Target groups:

youth, policy makers, civil society organizations, activists, local actors

- Description of the event and its activities.

The main aim of the event was to bring young people closer to European Parliamentarians and EU institutions in view of the next European Elections in 2024, through the practice of EP Simulation.

The core activity of the event consisted in the simulation of the European Parliament as a way to stimulate youth engagement in the democratic process.

- Graphical elements and photos of the event.

The project partners attended with their national project coordinators and other professionals. The registrations process was done via the google modules (<https://docs.google.com/forms/d/e/1FAIpQLSfgJuHRbaPNklrxYMTCOki9g3Pey5k95b09E5u4Llt5cGZT1w/viewform?usp=sharing>).

Photos from the event:

Feedback collected from NOTE partners who were asked to evaluate the event

Thanks to the EP Simulation, the event was highly appreciated by the partners and youth since it increased the understanding of the decision-making process at the EU level and developed skills as public speaking, working in a team under pressure and negotiation

*"Congratulations to the whole local team led by Evangelista Leuzzi. We were super nicely hosted in Taurisano. It was a great experience and an opportunity to see you all again. I think we must replicate that session with the youngsters in our cities. I was impressed by the level of culture and knowledge of the young guys. That kind of session puts the kids thinking and participating, and that is a way to fulfill the deep gap between the European, national, local organizations and the citizens" - Luís Miguel Roque Tarouca Duarte Gavinhos, Mayor of the Município do Fundão, Portugal
